Artist's Biography

Jacqueline discovered her love for art at a very early age and continued it to GCSE 'O' and 'A' Level, then took a Foundation Course at Shelley Park, Boscombe.

Most recently she enjoys practicing a variety of mediums including watercolour, pen and wash, acrylics, charcoal and mixed media. Her paintings are continually inspired by wildlife, nature and the surrounding diverse landscape and Jurassic coastline.

She has been exhibiting annually since 2003 with great success and has recently joined Marwell International Wildlife Art Society, Ringwood and Broadstone Art Societies with whom she will also be exhibiting.

Her work can be seen in galleries in Lyme Regis and is in many private collections home and abroad.

She has recently won an award for her painting 'A Chance Encounter' and is enjoying working on commissions.
